

I am opposed to any relaxation of rules that would allow a media corporation to acquire unlimited media outlets. If this were to happen, there would not be a diverse voice of news as well as many other implications.